

Confession of a Reviewer

By: Dr. Brandie E Keates

2-hour course

Description:

This seminar provides chiropractors and healthcare professionals with a comprehensive understanding of Pennsylvania Act 6 and its impact on clinical practice. Participants will explore legal responsibilities, documentation standards, and communication strategies when working with patients involved in motor vehicle accidents. The goal is to equip providers with the knowledge and confidence to navigate legal correspondence, support patients effectively, and remain compliant with Act 6 regulations.

By the end of the seminar, participants will be better able to:

- Explain the purpose and scope of Pennsylvania Act 6 as it relates to chiropractic and healthcare practice.
- Identify the appropriate chain of command and communication flow when treating patients involved in motor vehicle accidents.
- Apply proper documentation practices that meet legal standards and support patient care under Act 6.
- Respond confidently and compliantly to requests from attorneys and insurance companies regarding patient records.

Teaching Method:

- Lecture, Slides, Case Studies and Videos
