

Derick Van Ness is a Wealth Strategist who is passionate about helping people reach their full potential through removing the mystery and misinformation surrounding money and financial strategy. Derick believes that each person has something unique and valuable to contribute to the world, their Soul Purpose, but that most people are never able to express that gift due to fear, doubt, or worry related to money. His mission is to have a major role in setting 1 Million people financially free by the year 2030.

Derick has specifically been working with Chiropractors and small business owners since 2010 and has helped over 1000 business owners along the way. His ability to see the big picture while simultaneously understanding the nuances of each individual's needs is something that sets him apart in the financial world. He also has an uncanny ability to explain complex ideas and concepts in a simple way, thus ensuring that his clients knowledge grows as they work with him.

Derick's specialties include helping clients think about and utilize money in a completely different way than is being taught in the main stream media. He believes that investing in yourself & your business, building lasting legacy, and utilizing little known financial tools and systems to one's advantage are paramount in maximizing your results, fulfillment, and happiness.

In his free time Derick enjoys racing sailboats, creating art, and competing in West Coast Swing dancing. He currently lives in Northern Virginia after living recently in San Diego, Brooklyn, and Austin, TX.
